PLAINTIFF'S ORIGINAL COMPLAINT

PARTIES

1. The Plaintiff is BRANDON CALLIER, a natural person, resident of the Western District of Texas, and was present in Texas for all calls, in this case in El Paso County, Texas.
2. Defendant MCCARTHY LAW, PLC ("McCarthy Law") is a Professional Limited Liability Company organized and existing under the laws of Arizona and can be served via registered agent Kevin McCarthy, 4250 N Drinkwater Boulevard, Suite 320, Scottsdale, Arizona 85251.
3. Defendant KEVIN MCCARTHY ("McCarthy") is a natural person, resident of Arizona and Managing Partner of McCarthy Law, PLC and can be served at 4250 N Drinkwater Boulevard, Suite 320, Scottsdale, Arizona 85251.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

4. Jurisdiction. This Court has federal-question subject matter jurisdiction over Plaintiff's TCPA claims pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1331 because the TCPA is a federal statute. Mims v. Arrow Fin. Servs., LLC, 565 U.S. 368, 372 (2012). This Court has supplemental subject matter jurisdiction over

Plaintiff's claim arising under Texas Business and Commerce Code 305.053 because that claim arises from the same nucleus of operative fact, i.e., Defendants' telemarketing robocalls to Plaintiff; adds little complexity to the case; and doesn't seek money damages, so it is unlikely to predominate over the TCPA claims.

5. Personal Jurisdiction. This Court has general personal jurisdiction over the defendant because they have repeatedly placed calls to Texas residents, and derive revenue from Texas residents, and they sell goods and services to Texas residents, including the Plaintiff.
6. Venue. Venue is proper in this District pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b)(1)-(2) because a substantial part of the events giving rise to the claims—the calls and sale of goods and services directed at Texas residents, including the Plaintiff—occurred in this District and because the Plaintiff resides in this District. Residing in the Western District of Texas when he received a substantial if not every single call from the Defendants that are the subject matter of this lawsuit.
7. This Court has venue over the defendants because the calls at issue were sent by or on behalf of the above-named defendants to the Plaintiff, a Texas resident.

THE TELEPHONE CONSUMER PROTECTION ACT
OF 1991, 47 U.S.C. § 227

8. In 1991, Congress enacted the TCPA to restrict the use of sophisticated telemarketing equipment that could target millions of consumers en masse. Congress found that these calls were not only a nuisance and an invasion of privacy to consumers specifically but were also a threat to interstate commerce generally. See S. Rep. No. 102-178, at 2-3 (1991), as reprinted in 1991 U.S.C.C.A.N. 1968, 1969-71.
9. The TCPA makes it unlawful “to make any call (other than a call made for emergency purposes or made with the prior express consent of the called party) using an automatic telephone dialing system or an artificial or prerecorded voice ... to any telephone number assigned to a ... cellular telephone service.” 47 U.S.C. § 227(b)(1)(A)(iii).

10. The TCPA makes it unlawful “to initiate any telephone call to any residential telephone line using an artificial or prerecorded voice to deliver a message without the prior express consent of the called party, unless the call is initiated for emergency purposes, is made solely pursuant to the collection of a debt owed to or guaranteed by the United States or is exempted by rule or order” of the Federal Communication Commission (“FCC”). 47 U.S.C. § 227(b)(1)(B).
11. The TCPA provides a private cause of action to persons who receive calls in violation of § 227(b). 47 U.S.C. § 227(b)(3).
12. Separately, the TCPA bans making telemarketing calls without a do-not-call policy available upon demand. 47 U.S.C. § 227(c); 47 C.F.R. § 64.1200(d)(1).¹
13. The TCPA provides a private cause of action to persons who receive calls in violation of § 227(c) or a regulation promulgated thereunder. 47 U.S.C. § 227(c)(5).
14. According to findings of the FCC, the agency vested by Congress with authority to issue regulations implementing the TCPA, automated or prerecorded telephone calls are a greater nuisance and invasion of privacy than live solicitation calls and can be costly and inconvenient.
15. The FCC also recognizes that “wireless customers are charged for incoming calls whether they pay in advance or after the minutes are used.” In re Rules and Regulations Implementing the Tel. Consumer Prot. Act of 1991, 18 FCC Rcd. 14014, 14115 ¶ 165 (2003).
16. The FCC requires “prior express written consent” for all autodialed or prerecorded telemarketing robocalls to wireless numbers and residential lines. In particular:[A] consumer's written consent to receive telemarketing robocalls must be signed and be sufficient to show that the consumer: (1) received clear and conspicuous disclosure of the consequences of providing the requested consent, i.e., that the consumer will receive future calls that deliver prerecorded messages by or on behalf of a specific seller; and (2) having received this information, agrees unambiguously to receive such calls at a telephone number the consumer designates. In addition, the written agreement must be obtained without requiring, directly or indirectly, that the agreement be executed as a condition of purchasing any good or service.

17. In the Matter of Rules & Regulations Implementing the Tel. Consumer Prot. Act of 1991, 27 FCC Rcd. 1830, 1844 ¶ 33 (2012) (footnote and internal quotation marks omitted). FCC regulations “generally establish that the party on whose behalf a solicitation is made bears ultimate responsibility for any violations.” In the Matter of Rules and Regulations Implementing the Tel. Consumer Prot. Act of 1991, 10 FCC Rcd. 12391, 12397 ¶ 13 (1995).
18. The FCC confirmed this principle in 2013, when it explained that “a seller ... may be held vicariously liable under federal common law principles of agency for violations of either section 227(b) or section 227(c) that are committed by third-party telemarketers.” In the Matter of the Joint Petition Filed by Dish Network, LLC, 28 FCC Rcd. 6574, 6574 ¶ 1 (2013).
19. Under the TCPA, a text message is a call. Satterfield v. Simon & Schuster, Inc., 569 F.3d 946, 951 – 52 (9th Cir. 2009).
20. A corporate officer involved in the telemarketing at issue may be personally liable under the TCPA. E.g., Jackson Five Star Catering, Inc. v. Beason, Case No. 10-10010, 2013 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 159985, at *10 (E.D. Mich. Nov. 8, 2013) (“[M]any courts have held that corporate actors can be individually liable for violating the TCPA where they had direct, personal participation in or personally authorized the conduct found to have violated the statute.” (internal quotation marks omitted)); Maryland v. Universal Elections, 787 F. Supp. 2d 408, 415 – 16 (D. Md. 2011) (“If an individual acting on behalf of a corporation could avoid individual liability, the TCPA would lose much of its force.”).

The Texas Business and Commerce Code 305.053

21. The Texas Business and Commerce code has an analogous portion that is related to the TCPA and was violated in this case.
22. The Plaintiff may seek damages under this Texas law for violations of 47 USC 227 or subchapter A and seek $500 in statutory damages or $1500 for willful or knowing damages.

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

23. Plaintiff has been on the Do-Not-Call Registry since December 2007.
24. On January 19, 2021 at 10:51 AM Plaintiff received a phone call from phone number 954-628-5930, a spoofed caller ID. Plaintiff was connected to a telemarketer after a long pause. The call disconnected.
25. On January 19, 2021 at 11:16 AM Plaintiff received a second phone call from phone number 954-628-5930 and was connected to a telemarketer. The telemarketer solicited Plaintiff for the debt relief services of Defendants by asking Plaintiff questions about his student loan debt status.
26. The telemarketer then asked the Plaintiff to hold on the line while he got his “Debt Manager.” Plaintiff was then connected to Curtis LaCavera, a “Chief Engagement Paralegal” who emailed Plaintiff a credit authorization form from Curtis.lacavera@mccarthylawyer.com.
27. On January 19, 2021 at 3:23 PM Plaintiff received a third call from 954-628-5930 soliciting the legal services of Defendants.

28. Each time Plaintiff answered the phone there was a long pause before an audible “beep” and the Plaintiff was connected to a human being.
29. Plaintiff did not need, or want, Defendants’ legal services, but told Mr. LaCavera he did in order to determine who was illegally soliciting the Plaintiff.
30. Defendants employ outrageous, aggressive, and illegal sales techniques that violate multiple federal laws and state consumer statutes and ethical practices for the solicitation of legal services.
31. Defendants and their agents and co-conspirators amassed lists of thousands of potential customers from public records, and data aggregators and then sent phone calls using artificial or prerecorded voice messages en masse to market their products.
32. Defendants participated in, facilitated, directed, authorized, knew of or willfully ignored the unlawful robocalling, while knowing facts that required a reasonable person to investigate further, and approved, and ratified the conduct of their employees, agents, and co-conspirators to engage in the false and misleading sales practices and unlawful robocalling.
33. Plaintiff never consented to receive the calls alleged herein. Plaintiff had no relationship with Defendants prior to the calls alleged herein.
34. Each and every telemarketer the Plaintiff spoke with failed to properly identify themselves and the parties they were calling on behalf of.
35. Each and every call was placed without the maintenance of an internal do-not-call policy. Each and every call failed to identify the telemarketers and parties they were calling on behalf of. Each and every call was placed without training their agents/employees on the use of an internal do-not-call policy.
36. No emergency necessitated the calls.
37. None of the defendants ever sent Mr. Callier any do-not-call policy.

38. On information and belief, the Defendants did not have a written do-not-call policy while it was sending Mr. Callier the unsolicited calls,
39. On information and belief, the Defendants did not train its agents who engaged in telemarketing on the existence and use of any do-not-call list.

VICARIOUS LIABILITY OF THE SELLERS

40. These parties are vicariously liable under the theories of actual authority, apparent authority, and ratification, and as well as liable because any other result would impair the underlying purpose of the TCPA.
41. The Defendant McCarthy Law is the liable party as the direct beneficiary of the illegal telemarketing calls as they stood to gain the Plaintiff as a client.
42. The email shows that the beneficial party who was gaining customers was Defendant McCarthy Law.
43. Defendants authorized a third-party telemarketer to generate prospective customers. Defendants hired a third-party to promote its products and services. Defendants' integration of robocalling into its sales process was so seamless that it appeared to an outside party like Plaintiff that the third-party telemarketer was the telemarketing department of Defendant McCarthy Law.

THE SELLERS SHOULD BE HELD LIABLE TO UPHOLD THE

DETERRENT EFFECT AND PURPOSE OF THE TCPA

44. As the court ruled in Jackson v Caribbean Cruise Line, Inc., the defendant sellers should be held liable for their violations of the TCPA. Courts have looked at the purpose of the TCPA and found that not holding the sellers liable through vicarious liability would undermine the purpose of the TCPA.

INJURY, HARM, DAMAGES, and ACTUAL DAMAGES

AS A RESULT OF THE CALLS

45. Defendant's calls harmed the Plaintiff by causing the very harm that Congress sought to prevent—a "nuisance and invasion of privacy."
46. Defendant's calls harmed the Plaintiff by trespassing upon and interfering with Plaintiff's rights and interests in Plaintiff's cellular telephone.
47. Defendant's calls harmed the Plaintiff by trespassing upon and interfering with Plaintiff's rights and interests in Plaintiff's cellular telephone line.
48. Defendant's calls harmed the Plaintiff by intruding upon Plaintiff's seclusion.
49. The Plaintiff has been harmed, injured, and damages by the calls including, but not limited to:
- Reduced Device Storage space
 - Reduced data plan usage
 - Invasion of privacy
 - More frequent charging of my cell phone resulting in reduced enjoyment and usage of my cell phone

The Plaintiff's cell phone is a residential number

50. The calls were to the Plaintiff's cellular phone 915-383-4604 which is the Plaintiff's personal cell phone that he uses for personal, family, and household use. The Plaintiff maintains no landline phones at his residence and has not done so for at least 15 years and primarily relies on cellular phones to communicate with friends and family. The Plaintiff also uses his cell phone for navigation purposes, sending and receiving emails, timing food when cooking, and sending and receiving text messages. The Plaintiff further has his cell phone registered in his personal name, pays the cell phone from his personal accounts, and the phone is not primarily used for any business purpose.

Violations of the Texas Business and Commerce Code 305.053

51. The actions of the defendants violated the Texas Business and Commerce Code 305.053 by placing automated calls to a cell phone which violate 47 USC 227(b). The calls by the defendants violated Texas law by placing calls with a pre-recorded message to a cell phone which violate 47 USC 227(c)(5) and 47 USC 227(d) and 47 USC 227(d)(3) and 47 USC 227(e).
52. The calls by the defendants violated Texas law by spoofing the caller ID's per 47 USC 227(e) which in turn violates the Texas statute.
